

Please do not change the do not call list law. Even with the current rules, I get calls from solicitors. If anything, the fines should be increased.